RE: Ethan Balogh

To whom it may concern:

It is a pleasure to have been asked to write on behalf of Ethan Balogh: I am his current Babe Ruth Calgary club team Manager and Head Coach. I began my baseball coaching career in 2005. I've coached teams to the Prairie Championships for Little League, as well as the Babe Ruth Longhorn and A Blues travel teams. Our coach / player relationship began three years ago when I had the privilege coaching Ethan as a 14-year-old.

First, Ethan is dependable, trustworthy and a good teammate. Always arriving early, Ethan participated fully in our training and was always prepared for each practice.

Second, Ethan is a hard worker, setting goals for himself physically. He sets plans for success, then puts his plans to work. For example, Ethan wanted to increase arm strength and accuracy, he put in extra reps after practice and games training his arm. His efforts have produced success. Ethan is our starting center fielder; tracks the ball well, has the liveliest and accurate arm in the outfield.

His leadership through action helps our first-year players want to become better.

It is true that Ethan distinguished himself by his personal hard work, but Ethan also earned much respect for his demonstrated ability to foster growth in his younger teammates.

Ethan Balogh has earned a reputation as a hard-working, trustworthy individual who desires to excel. He responds with effort when challenged to produce his best. I strongly encourage you to give Ethan Balogh's application a favorable review. If there are any questions, or if I can be of any other help, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Andrew Keats
